

INDIVIDUAL REPORT

Describe the different types of child labor. What are short and long-term effects of child labor for the children and for their country? How is child labor in developing countries today similar or different from child labor in the U.S. during the Industrial Era?

Evaluation Criteria

- Response includes at least two examples to describe each type of child labor.
- Response includes at least two short-term and two long-term effects of child labor for the children.
- Response includes at least two short-term and two long-term effects of child labor for the country.
- Response includes a discussion, which includes three examples to compare child labor in developing countries today to that of the U.S. during the Industrial Era.