

Activity Two: The Evolution of British Democracy

EC	Exceeds EC	Meets the EC	Progressing towards the EC	Minimally addresses EC's
Response includes 2 letters, one from a member of Parliament to King William & Queen Marry and a reply from the royals [10%]
Letter from Parliament includes at least 3 reasons why they must accept the English B of R [30%]
Letter from the King and Queen includes at least 3 reasons why they are willing to accept the English B of R [30%]
The letters include historically accurate references to specific people, events, documents, etc. [30%]

Activity Two: The Evolution of British Democracy

Write a pair of letters: (1) Write one letter from a member of Parliament to King William and Queen Mary, explaining why it is so critical for them to accept the English Bill of Rights. (2) Write a letter back from King William and Queen Mary in which the monarchs explain why they are willing to accept the English Bill of Rights.

1. Response includes 2 letters, one from a member of Parliament to King William & Queen Mary and a reply from the royals
2. Letter from Parliament includes at least 3 reasons why they must accept the English Bill of Rights
3. Letter from the King and Queen includes at least 3 reasons why they are willing to accept the English Bill of Rights
4. The letters include historically accurate references to specific people, events, documents, etc.