

Activity Five: Napoleon

EC	Exceeds EC	Meets the EC	Progressing towards the EC	Minimally addresses EC's
Response is a thank you note from the point of view of a citizen of the Fr. Empire during Napoleon's rule; includes explanation of 'who you are' [25%]
Response explains the 5 most important things Napoleon has done for you. [25%]
Response expresses concern about at least 3 of Napoleon's policies that do not serve you well. [25%]
Response includes historically accurate reference to specific people, events and legislation. [25%]

Activity Five: Napoleon

Imagine that you are a citizen of the French Empire during the rule of Napoleon. Write a thank you note to Napoleon in which you show your appreciation for the five most important things he has done for you. In your note, you must also express your concern about at least three things of Napoleon's policies that do not serve you well.

Response is a thank you note from the point of view of a citizen of the Fr. Empire during Napoleon's rule; includes explanation of 'who you are'

Response explains the 5 most important things Napoleon has done for you.

Response expresses concern about at least 3 of Napoleon's policies that do not serve you well.

Response includes historically accurate reference to specific people, events and legislation.