

Activity One: Urbanization

EC	Exceeds EC	Meets the EC	Progressing towards the EC	Minimally addresses EC's
Response both compares and contrasts cities during the Industrial Revolution [10%]	[10%]	[8%]	[7%]	[6%]
Responses includes at least three reasons why cities grew during the Industrial Revolution and at least three reasons why cities grow today [30%]	[30%]	[26%]	[22%]	[18%]
Response includes at least three challenges cities faced during the Industrial Revolution and at least three Challenges cities face today. [20%]	[20%]	[17%]	[15%]	[12%]
Response includes at least three solutions to challenges cities faced during the Industrial Revolution and at least three solutions to challenges cities face today [20%]	[20%]	[17%]	[15%]	[12%]
Response addresses whether urbanization is a problem, progress, or a Promise [20%]	[20%]	[17%]	[15%]	[12%]

Activity One: Urbanization

Individual Report

Question: Compare and contrast cities during the Industrial Revolution and cities today. Consider the reasons why cities form/grow, the challenges cities face, and solutions to those challenges. Is urbanization a problem, progress or a promise?

1. Response both compares and contrasts cities during the Industrial Revolution and today.
2. Responses include at least three reasons why cities grew during the Industrial Revolution and at least three reasons why cities grow today.
3. Response includes at least three challenges cities faced during the Industrial Revolution and at least three Challenges cities face today.
4. Response includes at least three solutions to challenges cities faced during the Industrial Revolution and at least three solutions to challenges cities face today.
5. Response addresses whether urbanization is a problem, progress, or a Promise.