

Regional Conflict management: Activity One

INDIVIDUAL REPORT

Pretend that you are a citizen of the United States in 1919 or 1945. Write a letter to your senator, attempting to convince him to ratify the Treaty of Versailles (thus making the U.S. a member of the League of Nations), or to join the United Nations.

Evaluation Criteria

- Describe how either the League of Nations or the United Nations might be able to prevent regional conflicts.
- Describe how either the league of Nations or the United Nations might be able to contain regional conflicts.
- Describe how either the League of Nations or the United Nations might be able to resolve regional conflicts.
- Give at least three reasons why it is important for the U.S. to be a member of either the league of nations or the United Nations.
- Include at least 3 historical references to pre-1919 or pre-1945 alliances and/or treaties.
