

Simon Bolivar – The Liberator

Across

7. war between factions of the same community, state or nation.
10. To unite with or blend indistinguishably into a existing thing.
11. something left to a person by the will of someone who has died.
12. government, political system or state dominated by a tyrant

Down

1. Set free! Free of release from slavery, prison, and confinement.
2. Of or having to do with a colony or colonies.
3. Person who resist or fights against authority instead of obeying
4. People who share common customs, origins, history, and often language.
5. Lasting: permanent
6. Branch of government that administrates justice and interprets law.
8. A supporter of government by a monarch.
9. to bring back to a former or normal condition.