

INDIVIDUAL REPORT

Why do conflicts arise as governments attempt to respond to acts of terrorism? Can these conflicts be prevented? If so, how? If not, why not?

Evaluation Criteria

- Response explains at least three conflicts that can arise as governments attempt to respond to acts of terrorism.
- Response includes an explanation of the causes of each of these three (or more) conflicts.
- Response refers to at least three responses to historical or contemporary acts of terrorism.
- Response states whether or not each of these three (or more) conflicts can be prevented and explained how or why not.
