

Orientation Activity: Prejudice, Power, Division and Conflict

INDIVIDUAL REPORT

Write about personal experience of prejudice. Were you a victim, a perpetrator, a bystander or a rescuer in your experience? If you were to go through this same experience again, would you do anything differently? Why or why not?

Evaluation Criteria:

- Response tells the story of the experience.
- Response identifies the author's part in the experience as victim, perpetrator, bystander or rescuer.
- Response identifies what, if anything, the author would do differently.
- Response includes at least three reasons why the author would or would not act differently.
