

Forestville Historical Society

minutes for the meeting of February 3, 2002

The meeting, held at Penny Hutten's home, was opened at 3:15 p.m. with seven members present.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved with correctons.

The treasurer reported a balance or 441.24 in the treasury.

There is one new paid member, Faye Simpson. We have a total of only 9 paid members so far this year. We hope the articles in the Forestville Gazette will create more interest for more new members.

Under old business, it was decided there really wasn't enough time to complete our book this year so it will be continued into next year.

We looked through more of the history material Jeff Tobes gave us .

In new business, we decided to put a calendar together to sell from our booth at the Youth Park Barbecue and Carnival in June. Next meeting we will decide on the photographs/pictures to use, and create some captions for them. We hope to put in some information of interest about Forestville history.

Vesta, the new editor of the Forestville Gazette, has asked us to put an article into the paper each month, about our Society and about Forestville. Virginia will work on the first one for next month.

Some new books out about Sonoma County are: Gold Memories of the Redwood Empire, by Lee Torliat, and a new book about Petaluma by Simone Wilson.

The Sonoma County Museum has an exhibit about the "Running Fence" that was created in the '70's by Cristo.

The Tomalas Regional History Center has a new exhibit about the North Pacific Coast Railroad.

Being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:15 p.m.

We will meet at the Food For Thought building on Railroad Ave. Mar. 3

Respectfully Submitted,
Verna Blanc, secretary.
