Programs

Support Groups

Our support groups provide a place where caregivers can express their grief, frustrations, anxieties, aspirations and needs, in a caring understanding environment free from fear of criticism or condemnation.

Held in various parts of the county.

Guardianship Clinics

Grandparents Parenting... Again

facilitates self-help workshops for those family member's that wish to obtain guardianship of a family member's child at little or no cost. These workshops are in conjunction with the Probate Court and the Probate Court Investigator's office.

Call 707/566-8676 for details.

Counseling

We can refer you to family counselors that can help you with any issue you may have.

Legal Referrals

As you can imagine, our relative caregivers have used many attorney's in our county. We can tell you the ones they have been pleased with.

Information & Referral

We provide information and resources for relative caregiver families, and collaborate with other agencies to provide a comprehensive system of support.

Conferences

Grandparents Parenting... Again,

sponsors a conference that brings information on legal issues, parenting, welfare reform, child abuse, the court system and other needed resources to the people that need it the most... our grandparents.

Speakers Bureau

We will provide speakers for your meetings that are familiar with the phenomenon of grandparents raising grandchildren and the feelings, fears and frustrations that go with it. For information call Anne at 707/566-8676

Family Gatherings

Adults and children can benefit from our gatherings (picnics, potlucks, holiday parties, etc.) which allow socialization and adjustment to a non-traditional family structure with others in a similar situation.
